

HTX Minerals Corp. is a mineral exploration company with a head office in Sudbury, Ontario, developing a portfolio of Ni-Cu-PGM exploration properties in North America. HTX is currently seeking to fill the following permanent position:

Data Manager – GIS Specialist (5-10 years experience)

Reporting to the Vice President of Exploration, the Data Manager is responsible for the development, administration and management of all corporate digital data and geographic information system (GIS) support including 3D models. The Data Manager also ensures database standards are followed by establishing and maintaining appropriate database architecture and protocols. The preferred candidate will have broad experience in common GIS, 3D CAD software platforms for mineral exploration applications

General Accountabilities:

- Develops and maintains all digital databases through updates, administration and enhancements to performance.
- Ensures database standards are followed by establishing and maintaining appropriate database procedures and protocols and providing related documentation
- Develop and maintain up-to-date and comprehensive Mapinfo compilations for Ontario, Manitoba, Quebec and northern USA – Circum Superior Area,
- Provide specific project 2D GIS and 3D model development, familiarity with GOCAD as an asset,
- Experience with database management in Microsoft Access and Mapinfo GIS,
- HTX property management administration including, property tracking and regulatory administration, assessment filings, property database administration,
- Coordinates IS support needs and purchases with external contractors,
- Assists external contractor with website development and maintenance.

HTX Minerals Corp. offers a competitive compensation and benefits package. Qualified applicants should submit their resumes no later than April 15, 2010 to:

General Enquiries

info@htxminerals.com

HTX Minerals Corp.

410 Falconbridge Rd., Unit 5

Sudbury, ON

P3A 4S4

705-669-1777

705-669-1100 (fax)

www.htxminerals.com

Only those selected for an interview will be contacted.